The Lender Judy Howard will supply the Borrower with 40-60 (or more if desired and available) quilts measuring 22" X 22" with drop-down quilted story attached to each quilt, and 1 to 4 display signs to explain the exhibit to the public. Full and medium size quilts also available upon request.

The Borrower may use images of the quilts only for publicity purposes after a signed contract and payment has been sent. Borrower agrees to give credit for photos to Judy Howard, 405-751-3885, www.HeavenlyPatchwork.com and Quilt Artists in any publication photos are used.

The Borrowers agree that quilts will be displayed only indoors and given special care and consideration to protect against theft, loss, fire, water, high humidity, food or any damage from any cause whatsoever at all times while in the Borrowers' possession. The Borrowers agree to ship the quilts on Monday following a week-end show to the lender (or next exhibit venue) in the same method and condition received according to the enclosed instructions for checking off and returning the quilts. The Borrowers' insurance carrier would be considered the Primary carrier against loss and damage while the quilts are in Borrowers' possession.

All display formats that might leave residue matter or marks (such as tape, safety pins, push pins or nails on the actual quilt front) are not to be used in mounting this exhibit. Borrowers may hang the quilts by running rods through the sleeves on the back of the quilts or pin the quilts to wall or drapery using the attached four drapery rings or sleeve if they don't pin into the quilt itself. Visitors must not touch.

An exhibit fee of $100.00 for rental (free to Military and Veteran Groups) Thursday through Sunday will be returned to Judy Howard with this signed contract to reserve the dates indicated above. Check the calendar on www.HeavenlyPatchwork.com to ensure that your reservation has been made with show info included correctly.
